The fire at Nose Creek is the most serious of the three, according to C. Palmer, as it is burning in an isolated territory and rangers are finding difficulty in getting in to combat it.

The country is reported to be very dry, no rain having fallen over the territory for many weeks. The hazard is extremely dangerous in the north country, and fire fighters are taking every precaution to prevent fires.

All three fires are being fought and according to last reports, some headway is being made toward bringing the flames under control. Rangers would help extensively in aiding rangers with the work of fighting

Percy Williams Captures Empire 100 Yards Title But Is Badly Injured

Pulled Tendon Will Keep Champion Out For Rest of Season

Edmonton Sprinter, Buster Brown, Much in Prominence on Final Day of British Empire Games at Hamilton - Stan Glover Does Well

By JOE DWYER

HAMILTON, Ont., Aug. 25.—The final day of the British Empire Games here on Saturday was a fitting climax to a week of athletic triumphs and, to boot, it was a gala day for Canadian athletes. Four new Dominion marks were set in track and field events.

That peer of all sprinters, Percy Williams of Vancouver, did as expected in the feature event of the entire meet when he added to his laurels by capturing the 100 yard final in 8 1/2 seconds on a nice track from a speed-cratered field but the Olympic champion found the victory a dear one, with the result that he will not run again in this year according to his trainer, Bob Granger. Williams was warmed up for the sprint but the event was postponed a half-hour and the speed-deer from the Coast pulled the anchor as he flashed to victory by a good two yards over Tage of England with Johnny Fitzgerald of Canada, third.

PERCY WILLIAMS HAS WORN A RED CARNATION IN HIS BUTTON HOLE FOR 65 YEARS.

LOCAL SPRINTERS GETS HIS BREAK

His big performance here at Edmonton, however, was his 440 yard race on Saturday afternoon. The little sprinter who came third last Thursday in the preliminary and failed to qualify for the final, captured the 440 yard race on Saturday afternoon. ## Tenth Annual Meet Is Now Proceeding At Macdonald Hotel

200 Delegates Commence Deliberations on Questions of Outstanding Importance to Business Life of Country

Fully 200 representatives of insurance in its many-sided activities were present when the 10th annual conference of the Association of Superintendents of Insurance of Canada opened at the Macdonald hotel at 10 a.m. on Monday. It will continue until Wednesday.

H. G. Garrett, of Victoria, president of the organization was in the chair. Registration of delegates occupied the earlier portion of the morning, with Ralph R. Moore, of the Alberta fire insurance branch acting as secretary for the convention. Included among the delegates are senior officials of the varied kinds of insurance companies, present on invitation of the superintendents of insurance. They will aim to further the enactment of uniform legislation on all matters appertaining to insurance.

REST SESSIONS AWAIT DELEGATES

A busy three days confronts the delegates. In addition to the business sessions, the committee in charge has made provision for recreation in the form of golf and dancing.

Of paramount importance among the items of business to be discussed are statutory conditions in life contracts, the proposed uniform act for the licensing of insurance agents; automobile insurance; credit, fire insurance and fire insurance legislation.

Owing to the fact that so many matters up for discussion are of general interest to the public and in view of the interest that has been manifested in them, the conference will be open to insurance men in general and to the public with the exception of the Wednesday afternoon session, when items of a more private nature will be up for discussion.

Valuable Parley From both a business and a publicity standpoint this convention is considered an event of the utmost importance for Edmonton. There are present heads of large companies which have had some of money invested in the west.

Thoroughly in keeping with the

Leader

Hon. H. G. Garrett, president of the Association of Superintendents of Insurance of Canada.

At Parley

James A. McKinnon, prominent business man, who is attending the insurance convention now proceeding at the Macdonald hotel.

importance of the occasion is the program of entertainment. On Monday evening the provincial government is entertaining the delegates at a banquet. This will be followed by a dance being given by the superintendents of insurance.

On Tuesday afternoon provision will be made for a sight-seeing tour of the city, available to all delegates. As an alternative there will be golf on local courses, rated as unsurpassed in those parts.

It is a sort of home-coming for the organization holding the convention. The Association of Superintendents of Insurance had its origin in Alberta, having been founded at Calgary in 1914. In that year and on that occasion the superintendents banded together with the object of establishing uniformity throughout Canada on insurance legislation.

This is the first occasion on which the annual conference has been held in Alberta since the formation of the organization.

Officers The officers of the association are: H. G. Garrett, Victoria, B.C., president; R. A. Duval, Quebec, Que., vice-president; R. Leighton, Toronto, secretary-treasurer; Ralph R. Moore, Montreal, secretary; H. G. Garrett, Alberta provincial superintendent, is a past president of the organization, having held that office in 1927.

Committee chairman in charge of the arrangements for the conference is Edmonton's Central committee, P. B. Matthews, entertainment committee, F. H. Jones, transportation committee, R. L. Greene; golf committee, Walter Blackett.

The agenda The complete program is as follows: Monday, August 25, 9 a.m.—Address of welcome by Hon. H. G. Garrett and his wife; Mayor Douglas, Deputy Mayor Duval, President's address, Mr. Garrett. Annual report of secretary, Mr. Moore. Introduction of institutions. Address: "The Development of the Idea of Insurance and the Law Relating Thereto," S. B. Woods, K.C., of the Alberta bar. Presentation of reports of committees, as follows: Statutory conditions in life contracts, proposed uniform act for licensing of life insurance agents; proposed amendments to uniform life insurance act; automobile insurance legislation; the credit and fire insurance; fire insurance legislation; annual statement blanks; uniform definitions.

Monday, August 26, afternoon session, 2:30 p.m.—Open business session. Further consideration of committee reports.

Monday, August 26, evening 7 p.m.—Banquet (undered by the government) for the members of Alberta Macdonald hotel, 9 p.m.—dance, Macdonald hotel. Conducted by superintendents of insurance.

Tuesday, August 26, 9:30 a.m.—Open business session and consideration of reports. Macdonald hotel, 12:30 p.m., associated insurance fraternal association. Macdonald hotel, 3 p.m., golf or sight-seeing tour, under supervision of associated insurance fraternity of America.

Wednesday, August 27, morning session, 9:30 a.m.—Open business session and consideration of reports. Afternoon session, 2:30 p.m., private executive session.

Underwear shows decided modern

Underwear shows decided modern changes. I couldn't find a suit of long-sleeved, long-legged union suits of the type worn by the men of the 1890s. Instead the new type union suits for both boys and girls are made of a soft, warm material, have a heavy weight cotton, light weight wool or a mixture of the two. They have buttons down the front of the legs and a button closure to dress and button himself up.

There are no sleeve and the knees are covered by a piece of material which is very very short, and the neck is covered by a collar. The suit for the boy or girl who is always outdoors is made of a heavier material.

Sister wears knitted suit of rayon blouse in shades to match her skirt. The blouse is made for mothers with rubber at the waist and a button down the front and a button here.

Changes for the modern child are made with the knowledge that the modern housewife has much better than the mother of 1890.

Children should learn to dress themselves. They should be able to use the fastest of buttons, which are now large and easily reached, and so make a child's dressing easy.

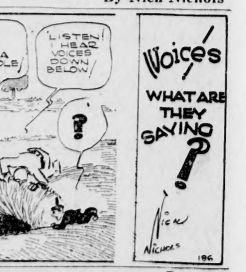

There should be of the alpaca variety, which is soft and warm, and is suitable for the full list of garments which a child needs for the year. The suit for the fall and winter school session. It becomes what the mother does of the child's clothing.

The most morning they are to be made of a material which is soft and warm is all that is necessary to get the child ready for the day.
